

Disneyland Resort Serves Spooky Treats and Frightfully Festive Foods During Halloween Time, Sept. 7-Oct. 31, 2018

ANAHEIM, Calif. (Sept. 5, 2018) – This year, during Halloween Time at the Disneyland Resort, Halloween-themed food and beverage is a part of the spooky storytelling and “fang-tastic” fun. From new items such as the orange sugar churro with candy corn dip and sweet potato hand pie, to returning favorites like the bat cookie and pumpkin spice beignets, there is something dreadfully delicious for everyone to enjoy during the Halloween season, which runs from Sept. 7 through Oct. 31, 2018.

Guests visiting Disneyland and Disney California Adventure parks may also choose to order some of the festive Halloween treats such as the new Cruella de Vil brownie from Jolly Holiday Bakery Café or the new Oktoberfest dog from Award Wieners using the new mobile ordering feature on the Disneyland app.

All around the resort, guests will find special sweet and savory Halloween-themed menu items inspired by beloved characters, stories and even famous Disney villains.
