

Traveling with Kids at Aulani, A Disney Resort & Spa Fact Sheet

Overview: A relaxing family vacation with young children is easier than ever at Aulani Resort. Whether it's splashing around at the pool with toddlers, building sand castles on the beach, or having a magical encounter with Mickey Mouse, children are entertained and engaged with magic around every corner of the resort. A host of child-friendly amenities and enhanced services make this destination resort an ideal choice for young families.

Key Features:

Activities

- There's fun for kids ages 4-12 at Auntie's Beach House, a 5,200-square-foot club open 8 a.m. – 2 p.m. daily. Disney-trained counselors inspire and entertain with games, arts and crafts, storytelling, movies and more.
- Throughout Aulani Resort, little ones are sure to spot some familiar faces — Disney characters who can't wait to meet them!
- On the Menehune Adventure Trail, adults can take children on an interactive journey led by Auntie that uncovers hidden surprises throughout the resort.
- Water works wonders for kids, and Waikolohe Pool is "zero entry" making it easy for little minnows to enter. Lifeguards are on duty during pool operating hours and tot-sized float vests are available.
- Youngsters can splash at Menehune Bridge, an interactive water-play area with two slides, a climbing structure and more. Here, tots can discover menehune, the mythical little people known for mysterious happenings on the islands.
- Curious kids (and kids-at-heart) can peek through giant windows embedded in caves at Rainbow Reef, a private snorkeling lagoon filled with colorful marine life and some fun surprises.
- Laniwai – A Disney Spa, the family-friendly spa, cradles babies in the lap of luxury with a special session geared toward teaching parents how to massage their child (up to two years old) to help with sleep and digestion. While one parent learns the art of baby massage, the other parent relaxes with a massage treatment. Family massage is on the menu too, for kids over five years old with a parent or guardian.
- Boys and girls ages 3-12 can choose from a variety of makeover packages that include hairstyling, makeup, costumes and accessories — all infused with hints of Hawai'i and a playful sense of Disney fun at the Painted Sky: HI Style Studio.
- Sea, sun and sand beckon youngsters to the beachfront to build sand castles, frolic in the waves and take in the beauty of the island.
- The Daily 'Iwa and Aulani App are handy planning tools to check daily schedules for poolside games, storytelling and other fun activities throughout the resort.
- Upon check-in, pint-sized stools, televisions and interactive fun at Nā Pua Place kid's lounge keep young guests entertained.
